

Cobell v. Salazar Settlement Website - <http://www.indiantrust.com/>

IMPORTANT UPDATE FOR JUNE 20, 2011: The United States District Court for the District of Columbia granted Final Approval for the Indian Trust Settlement orally at the Fairness Hearing. As soon as the Order of the Court is available it will be posted on this website.

This website contains important information about the $3.4 billion Indian Trust Settlement.

On December 21, 2010, The United States District Court for the District of Columbia granted preliminary approval to the Settlement. On December 8, 2010, President Obama signed legislation approving the Settlement and authorizing $3.4 billion in funds.

You may be a part of this Settlement with certain rights in this Settlement if you are an:

- Individual Indian Money ("IIM") account holder (even if the account is currently not active or open),
- Individual Indian who has or had an ownership interest in land held in trust or in restricted status,
- Heir to a deceased IIM account holder or individual landowner.

If you are NOT currently receiving quarterly or annual IIM account statements and believe you are part of this Settlement, you will need to File a Claim Form / Register to Participate. You have the option to File a Claim Form / Register to Participate online, or to download and print the Claim Form for mailing. To obtain a Claim Form, you may also call the toll-free number or write to Indian Trust Settlement and request that a Claim Form be mailed to you.

Please be sure to review the Detailed Notice to fully understand your rights.

Settlement Video: This video contains important information about the Indian Trust Settlement. In the video, Elouise Cobell describes the Settlement and answers frequently asked questions about how to participate, your legal rights, and how to get money if you qualify.

<http://www.indiantrust.com/>