

Examples of why Raymond Red Corn should NOT be re-elected

June 24, 2009

CONGRESSMAN-----RAYMOND RED CORN-----	VOTED
(BILL NUMBER ONCA 07-34) Sponsor of the Bill: Faren Revard Anderson PURPOSE: To take steps to assure that budget processes are handled in a manner that assures maximum accountability to the citizens of the nation and their duly elected legislative representatives. Public accountability for funds and an Osage Nation Open Records Act. (Chief vetoed this Bill with the approval and consent of Congressman Red Corn. Due to Red Corn, Atterberry and Freeman's support of the Chief, this Bill did not pass.)	NO
(BILL NUMBER ONCA 07-60) Sponsor of the Bill: Faren Revard Anderson TEXT: "Osage Nation Savings Plan" (a) To create a Savings Plan for the Osage Nation. (b) To provide for a maximum longevity of the nation's current funding sources. (c) To inform the Osage people their elected government officials are planning ahead for future generations to come. (Simply establishing a Savings Plan in the Interest of the Nation) This Bill did not pass	NO
(BILL NUMBER ONCA 08-43) Sponsor of the Bill: Faren Reverad Anderson To provide an appropriation to the Government Operations Departments and Programs of the Osage Nation for Fiscal Year 2009; to declare an emergency and establish an effective date.	NO
(BILL NUMBER ONCA 08-45) Sponsor of the Bill: Faren Revard Anderson TEXT: Fiscal Year 2009 Office of the Chiefs Appropriation Act: Note: An attempt to help the Chief manage our money more carefully. (Simply seeking accountability from the Chief)	NO
(BILL NUMBER ONCR 07-22) Sponsor of the Bill: William "Kugee" Supernaw PURPOSE: To reduce the number of Congressional votes it takes to override the Chief's veto. This Current Constitution stands at 3/4 vote. This Bill would have reduced the number to 2/3 vote which is in alignment with most governments. (This Bill Did Not Pass)	NO
(Bill NUMBER ONCR 08-16) Sponsor of the Bill: William "Kugee" Supernaw A Resolution to approve the office of Fiscal Performance Review to hire a temporary Special Investigator (This Bill Did Not Pass)	NO

NOTE: This report is compliments of the Jenny Miller, 2010 Candidate for Osage Nation Government Campaign. If you have questions regarding this report or would like documents confirming the content, please e-mail me at: info@jenny2010.com or call 918-260-5712.

Anyone interested in receiving complete voting records for this Congress, I can provide these as well.

Be aware that the six examples listed here are not by any means the only questionable acts performed by this Congress Member.