ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Please make note of my failure to add Geoffrey Standing Bear's additional post on the OSA Forum which indicates a correction to his post entered in my initial newsletter:

Re: Osage Nation Appellant v. Oklahoma Tax Commission

From: G. Standing Bear

Date: 02 Jan 2010

Comments

I meant George Skibine, the brother of Alex who is a Professor of Law.

ONWARD & UPWARD

Jim Gray vetoes ONCA 10-24. You will find the Veto Message on the HOT TOPICS page. Once again Gray seems to be grasping for our dollars. Let there be no doubt that the Appropriations bill, ONCR 10-04, introduced by Debbie Atterberry on Wednesday came in the form of a panic attack from the Executive Branch.

My question is: What has he promised? How much has he committed and to whom?

NOTE FROM STANDING BEAR

Jenny, thank you for the endorsement. Also, on the OSA article I later corrected myself to say "George" Skibine who is Alex's brother. Alex is a law professor. George is his twin and both are brilliant and for the Osage. By the way, I suggest you highlight your relationship to Ben Mashunkashey, the first Pawhuska Drumkeeper. The Pawhuska families, including mine, were loyal to him and your family for good reason. You can quote me on that!
