You people are ridiculous! Degree or no Degree? Bighorse or Proctor? you less than half breeds that continuously post on here are ridiculous! You know absolutely nothing our the Wa Zha Zhe people. We have had leaders of our Nation for hundreds of years, and we have made it this far. The way I see it, we survived just fine until white men came along, and moved us, lied to us, tricked us, killed us, civilized us? and here we are again; however know they are running for elected seats in our government? And you all are fighting about is on this forum!! haha, Scott Bighorse doesnt need a piece of paper from a white man to be able to lead his people, all he needs ARE HIS PEOPLE. BIGHORSE has my support, my vote and my prayers. Way we nah (that means thank you, ---for all you less half breeds).....and for the sake of arguement, Jim Gray has a degree, Hepsi Barnett has a degree, Arthusa Iron has a degree, Dawna Bowman has a degree, .....what has their degree successfully accomplished for our Wa Zha Zhe people? Hypocrits

C'mon! -----I talk with 3/4 bloods and 1/2 bloods every day (literally). You uneducated, self righteous, closed minded bunch of whatever you think you are continue to lead the Osage into complete oblivion. -----Whether you like it or not. If you want to keep what you believe in and what you claim you live and practice, you had better get a grip and start reading, comprehending and accepting H.R. 2912 (P.L. 108-431).-----This is a new day, good or bad.-----The 8 man council is over. -----You're Hero, Jim Gray, screwed you royally in hopes of becoming the leader of the Native American world.----- --This election put a halt on his plans and we can't afford to make the same mistake twice.-----Business, Business, Business is the order of the day for Osages.-----It's sink or swim in the world of Business and we have to have educated, experienced people in the world of business to survive.-----If that's not the path you want to take, then rid us of the Casinos and let's go back to the original form of government, where only shareholders have a voice!-----In my view, that may be the best thing to do because most of you just don't get the possibilities for the tribe as a whole. -----Get over yourselves! I can see you any hour of the day in Wal-mart, concerts, ballgames and restaurants. We've all become acclimated but we keep the Culture and we MUST because without it, we cease to exist.-----It's time to get off the high horse and start playing the game.-----Some of you are truly laughable BUT at the expense of the entire tribe.-----You have no idea what we will lose.-----I can tell you though.---- Money can't buy it and some day you'll be seeking out the Pow Wows because at the end of the day, you're going to self destruct.-----You don't know what you're worth as individuals, you don't know your true importance.-----If you did you wouldn't be reading this and you would be seeking interested Osages in order to survive and flourish.-----

--I agree with the poster below me.-----I cut in but he or she is absolutely correct.----
Some of you just don't get why you were told you were different or special or so important!

haha eww, must have hit a nerve with (less than half breed) Jenny!.....you people?...most of you?...JUST WHO ARE YOU TALKING TOO Jenny? us Cultured Osages, you're on this forum, trying to solve the world one post at a time with your newsletters, but real Osages were under the Arbor Sunday, where were you? You publicly criticize S Bighorse, but you dont have the nerve to run for an elected seat! OOH WAIT---- you did! However our people didnt want you! "Business, Business, Business - is the order of the day for Osages" ..... uh...again Jenny, stupid comments like this, are the reason we didnt elect you.

To: 166.232.253.20-----I beg to differ as do many other Osages.-----It is (comments/thinking) like yours that in fact resulted in my not being elected and comments like mine (of which there were many) that helped us rid ourselves of the Gray Administration and the less than adequate Minerals Council.-----My comments will continue in spite of your attempts to stop them. For the sake of the Osage future, we can only hope you continue to read them and that at some point comprehension rears its insightful head in the process.-----In the mean time, I would just add that your support of Scott in the manner of which you have chosen is going to prove to be detrimental to him-----Such comments give pause to the reader in that perhaps Scott has the same self-righteous, vindictive, hateful and less than educated mind set as you.-----Your statements are helpful to my cause in more ways than one. You offer living written proof to the voters across the country that we are in desperate need of educated, experienced, well spoken people to administer this government. For this I thank you.

Just wanted to let you know that I'm 3/4 Osage and I think you are making a big mistake supporting Bighorse. Can you honestly say that Scott Bighorse is someone that our people can look up to? Why did the Democratic party decline to endorse him? When you say "His people", whom are you referring to? Why do you come off so angry? Being so close to Scott, can you please answer the questions regarding his character issues?

Your "half-breed" comments are extremely distasteful and ignorant....are you saying you are full blood? Is Scott Bighorse full blood? Just flat out ignorant. And to insinuate that if you weren't under the arbor on Sunday, then you aren't a "real Osage" is just awful. It's folks like yourself that bring shame to our tribe.....do yourself and your people a favor and stop posting on public forums.

Standing under the arbor does not make you an Osage! You plainly do not have an Osage heart, you are spiteful and mean - that is not the 'way'. You obviously feel overlooked or you wouldn't say things that only make you look bad, so we will pray for you and hope you can wake up soon and become a better person.
